

Untutored Life drawing

Join The Potter's Wheel for untutored life drawing on Tuesday evenings. All abilities are very welcome!

Each session runs from 6pm - 8pm. Drawing boards and basic drawing equipment are provided but please feel free to bring any materials and equipment of your own.

The model will sit nude for a variety of short and long poses with a 15min break halfway through the session.

Day- Tuesday

Times- 18:00 – 20:00

Price- £15

Booking - To book your spot please email emily@the-potters-wheel.co.uk or pop into the shop.

What's provided - Drawing board, paper, pencils, charcoal.

Access to a disabled toilet.

Teas, coffees, and squash are available.

Please arrive with a little bit of time to spare and make yourself a tea or coffee. If the curtains are closed, please knock loudly, and wait for the door to be answered (we don't want to flash any unsuspecting passers-by and cause a traffic jam!)

Due to nudity, these sessions are designed for adults only (18years and above) – However are suitable for 16-18 at the guardian's discretion.

Parking -

The closest car park is Goldsmiths Lane carpark offering 2 hours free parking as well as a number of disabled spaces. It is about a 3 minute walk to The Potter's Wheel from there.
